

The Butler Did It!

In a secret location known only to a few, the best butlers in the world come to meet and train the next generation of “gentleman’s gentleman”.

Who better to teach the butlering arts than the renowned J. Downington Hughes, who has not only served the rich and royal alike, but has amassed himself a fortune doing so.

At the event is sweet Mrs. Buttleworth, a housekeeper who wishes to become a Head Butler. As well as Mary Poppinjay, an efficiency expert here to learn the “tricks of the trade”.

Add to the mix, Arthur (Smelly) Smellington who seems TOO eager to get on Mr. Hughes’ good side, and explore the manse.

When one of them ends up MURDERED, it takes the undaunted Inspector Plodder-- with the help of the audience-- to find out which Butler Did It!