

Say the password and you'll be brought into "Big" Tony's speakeasy, where Tony and his gang are looking for an informer who ratted to the cops.

You'll get to know Spats, both the brains and the muscle for the gang; Bonnie, the tough female mobster; Zelda, "Big" Tony's Gun Moll and troublemaker; as well as Trixie, the bubble head who helps run the joint.

The situation gets out of control when Tony is poisoned and Officer O'Malley comes to track down the killer-- with the audience's help.

A delightful Roarin' 20's romp.

Don't forget to say, "Tony Sent Me!"
